Bachelors Thesis Notes

Structure of Thesis

1. Introduction
   - Koch Industries example (2016 elections) -> campaign
2. Literature Review
   - (institutional setting)
   - Money in politics literature (economics and political science)
   - Causal effect of campaign money on representatives' voting decisions.
3. Methodology
   - Data
     - types of data
     - sources
     - (cleaning?)
   - Models
   - Robustness Checks
4. Results
5. Discussion
6. Conclusion

Replicate Strattmann table with the following data out of 725, 557 are vote repeaters -> 6 votes 23 mind changers, out of 557 96 people voted + on all bills, out of 557 71 voted - on all bills, out of 557 find how many voted + and then - from vote changers (then mark which bill) 5 + 2 person voted + and then - on 6 bills find how many voted - and then + from vote changers (then mark which bill) 5 + 16 persons voted - and then + on the bills